

TEXT:

Observations - make 10 observations about the text.

What is plainly stated? What details are included? Who is acting or speaking?

Cross References - list or find 5 verses or passages that are relevant to this passage

Passages that support, illustrate, expand, qualify, nuance, or tension the above inferences.

Doctrine - which doctrines are relevant to the study of this passage?

Background - which doctrines are needed to understand this passage?

Construction - which doctrines are supported by this passage?

Illustration - which doctrines can you see in action in this passage?

Outline the Text - how do the clauses relate to one another?

- Non-narrative - how many points are there? Which clauses are arguments? Evidence? Explanation? Expansions? Qualifications? Concessions? Other?
- Narrative - how many "scenes" are there? How do they relate?

Application - how should this passage shape your daily life?

Head - how should this shape what you believe and affirm?

Big Idea - What is the main idea? Which verse most directly states this?

Heart - how should this shape what you love, celebrate, and desire?

Inferences - What simple inferences can be drawn from this text?

About God? Man? Christ? The Gospel? The Christian Life?

Hands - how should this shape what you do?

TEXT:

Observations - make 10 observations about the text.

What is plainly stated? What details are included? Who is acting or speaking?

Cross References - list or find 5 verses or passages that are relevant to this passage

Passages that support, illustrate, expand, qualify, nuance, or tension the above inferences.

Doctrine - which doctrines are relevant to the study of this passage?

Background - which doctrines are needed to understand this passage?

Construction - which doctrines are supported by this passage?

Illustration - which doctrines can you see in action in this passage?

Outline the Text - how do the clauses relate to one another?

- Non-narrative - how many points are there? Which clauses are arguments? Evidence? Explanation? Expansions? Qualifications? Concessions? Other?
- Narrative - how many "scenes" are there? How do they relate?

Application - how should this passage shape your daily life?

Head - how should this shape what you believe and affirm?

Big Idea - What is the main idea? Which verse most directly states this?

Heart - how should this shape what you love, celebrate, and desire?

Inferences - What simple inferences can be drawn from this text?

About God? Man? Christ? The Gospel? The Christian Life?

Hands - how should this shape what you do?